Lions of the Year

Lion Gertie Moore

As club manager, Lion Gertie has many responsibilities, but she goes above and beyond the call of duty on a regular basis. Her countless hours of service keep our club running smoothly. Lion Gertie epitomizes the word dependable. Her energy seems endless, and she has often been referred to as our "energizer bunny!"

It may be unusual for a club president to receive Lion of the Year award, but it has by all means been an unusual year for our club and our community. President Linda has shown fortitude throughout the Cascade fire and the heartbreaking weeks that have followed. Lion Linda has shown courage under pressure, a true leader, a beacon of hope and renewal like the mighty phoenix.

Welcome President Sheri

Meet President Sheri Vess! A 17-year veteran of the Loma Rica Foothill Lions Club, she is serving in her second term as President of this club.

Sheri retired from the Sutter County Public Works Road Department and has lived in the foothills for 19 years. She and her husband, Kenn, have 7 children, 12 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren – most of whom live in the local area. In their leisure time, they enjoy being with their family and are also very active in car shows.

In the coming year as our president, Sheri hopes to increase membership and active participation in the club. She would also like to create a workshop for the mowers and increase accessibility to the storage area. President Sheri is hoping for a peaceful and productive year for our club and community.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LION SIERRA KANAWYER

On May 31, 2018, Lion Sierra graduated and earned her high school diploma. Lion Sierra decided to complete her studies and do the work to get that most important document – A High School Diploma. She did not want to get a GED – she wanted her diploma. Onward and upward Lion Sierra!

Lion Sierra has raised two children on her own without much help. Lion Sierra is an excellent example of how important education is to insure a successful future. Both her children should be very proud of her achievement. I know I am very proud of her.

Lion Sierra is not only a Lion member, but she is a Lioness member too.

Congratulations to Lion/Lioness Sierra on your outstanding achievement and much success in your further studies.

Cow Pasture Golf

Our 6th annual Cow Pasture Golf couldn't have been better. We had a beautiful course and weather for a June event. I heard all had a great time. The profit for the fun "Lion" day was $1700.

Cookies went to the following: #1 – Mike S, Paul D, Mike "O" & Pete C / #2 – Bill & Laurie H, Barb S & Debbie H / Cow patty cookies to John N, Rodney A, Peggy S & Danny. The "Boobie" (highest score) cookies went to Nancy & Sarge S, Jen A & Justin E (the Farrell team). Thanks to Delores for the course and Charlie for helping with the prep work. The help with set up & tear down of equipment and the food was greatly appreciated. The day could not have happened without the help. Thank You!

Memorial Day Program and Veterans Appreciation BBQ

The May 28th Memorial Day program began with the posting of the Colors by the Beale AFB honor guard, followed by PDG Jamie Hart leading the Pledge of Allegiance and Pinky Rideau sharing the Star-Spangled Banner and a prayer. Our speaker for this event was Mike Nichols from Yuba Sutter Stand Down.

Following the program, over 225 people were served at the Veteran's Appreciation BBQ which consisted of tri tip, chicken, diced baked potatoes, coleslaw and dessert. All veterans ate for free, including many sheriff's deputies, CHP, and Firefighters. Thanks go out to Mike and Shari McKim, Mike and Luz Nakamura, Charlie Hall, Linda Saala and Delores Simpkins for the fabulous food preparation and all of those who provided desserts!

Much of the decorating, food serving and clean-up were provided by Marysville FFA and Brown's Valley 4-H, under the direction of Lion Jim DeGraff. These young people looked so professional in their uniforms and gladly assisted in honoring our veterans and their families. Lions Delores, Gertie, Sue and Jim kept the food lines running smoothly!

The grounds and hall looked wonderful and the lion helpers who decorated and set up flags inside and out were much appreciated. Thanks to everyone for showing your support to our veterans and their families. Our club is veteran-strong and veteran-proud. This event cannot be produced without our club's volunteer support and strong efforts by all. Chair-person, Lion Cindi Fitzgerald did an outstanding job organizing this event!
