Fun for all at Derby Day

On Sat. May 6th we held our annual Derby Day, Many Lions gathered for the running of the Kentucky Derby. Drinks were drank, great food was served pool was shot, darts were tossed, and an all-around good time was had. Linda and Kim chose the winning horses, and Cindi Fitz won the Hat contest. President's Message

Lion Linda Saala

Aaahhhh, the last month of me being your Lion President!

My intent last July was to inspire you, entertain you, and lead by example showing that while WE SERVE, we are able to have a good time with our fellow Lions sharing the workload as we make life better for our Foothill citizens.

In the spirit of Pirates, I wrote this ditty for our History Book, and it certainly applies to our year, 2017-2018!

*They threw Greek fire, They burned the villages
Our treasured Gold and coin, Melted into the earth and sea*

And yet, we persevered and survived!

Our Ship, The Loma Rica, is rising from the ashes

And we will sail into the future Stronger and Smarter

Learning from this disaster

That Loma Rica has strong allies and they are called LIONS!

I believe we have earned our grade "A" for the year! I thank you for making my job successful, because without you, there is no Lions Club!

YOU, Lions of Loma Rica, are the best! It has been an honor to be your president, and I am so very proud to have served with all of you!

PLEASE come to our awards meeting June 21! I have something for all of you to show my appreciation, because you made my job easy!! Pot Luck, so no one will be doing dishes!! We CELEBRATE and deserve a night of recognition!!

ADOPT-A-HIGHWAY CLEAN-UP Saturday, May 19th

Well folks, some of your new members made you proud today picking up other people's trash, grrrrrr. Lions Bill H, Mike R, Judy, not so new Peggy, and new born Rodney, along with my two faithfuls, Lions Joni and Jean Marie, managed to spruce up a couple miles of Hwy #20 getting rid of 30 bags of "stuff". Lion Peggy did find some "real" treasures and when I asked Rodney if he had "tons of fun", he said, "It was enjoyable/interesting". THANK YOU CREW, you're off the hook until October.

Loma Rica Foothill Lions Appreciation Dinner

Lion Debbie Burlingame, Chairperson

The Foothill Lions team proved again we are top class. This event is something we are proud of as we continually ask our community to give, give, give, and this is our way of giving back! Each attendee was provided a certificate of appreciation after we allowed Lion Debbie to give a speech! (Oh no!) It was important to provide information to them about our club and how much their contributions count!

President Linda Saala and Lion Billy McNeal

The 19th of May was a proud day for our Lions club. We hosted our Sponsor appreciation dinner and were honored to serve 30 guests a fabulous dinner! The hall was transformed into a colorful spring theme, Lion Linda Saala outdid herself by crafting excellent chicken cordon bleu, paired with salad topped with candied walnuts, baby roasted potatoes, broccoli and the best cheese sauce followed up with dessert by Lion Janet!

From July 2017 to now we have raised over $24,000 for our community! (That's after the bills!) Our volunteer hours were also mentioned to give an idea of just how much "We Serve". All nominated sponsors will receive their certificate even if they missed the party! We received many accolades on our outstanding effort to recognize them in a personal way! It was much appreciated, thank you everyone!
